

SENECA by Renee Edel

Seneca is a 7 year old sorrel gelding with a blaze and 3 socks. He was a bachelor for a few years, but had been with the mare Pinon (also available for adoption) and her colt for the last year. He has spent most of his life in the remote part of the horse range called Monument Rock, and also high up in Coal Canyon. I don't think he has seen many people, but I have had the pleasure of seeing him at least a dozen times. Last year I saw him 5-6 times in a couple months, and every time he was less concerned with my presence. The final time I saw him he was actually 'posing' for photos for 10 minutes or more.

When Seneca was younger another FOM volunteer, Marty, and I joked that every time we see Seneca he is hiding behind a tree. It's as if he's thinking that we can't see him if he's behind a tree, so sweet. Please consider adopting this sweet gelding with the kind eyes and beautiful head.
